

Elizabeth Glaser
Pediatric AIDS
Foundation

Until no child has AIDS.

THE ELIZABETH GLASER PEDIATRIC AIDS FOUNDATION AT THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON AIDS AND STIS IN AFRICA, KIGALI RWANDA

We welcome delegates and partners to visit us at the following sessions at ICASA 2019

MONDAY, DECEMBER 2

Unitaid, ASLM, CHAI, UNICEF, EGPAF will host Multi-disease Integrated Testing, Treatment and Care Innovation – Women-Centered Diagnostic Testing Approaches from 8:30 am to 10:00 am in Jeanne Gapiya (MH 4).

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3

EGPAF will host The Good, The Better, and The Unexpected: Learning From Accelerating Children's HIV Treatment (ACT) Adolescent Project's HIV Research in Zimbabwe, Kenya, and Tanzania from 7:00 am to 8:30 am in Session Room MH1.

MSF hosts the Advanced HIV Disease Workshop from 11:30 am to 13:30 pm at the Lemigo Hotel. Jennifer Cohn, EGPAF-Geneva will present.

EGPAF POSTER PRESENTATIONS

Characteristics of HIV-infected children dying before ART initiation in Eswatini, presented by Thembe Masuku, EGPAF-Eswatini

Routine point-of-care HIV testing at birth: results from pilot in Eswatini, presented by Philisiwe Khumalo, EGPAF-Eswatini

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4

Abbott will host the Optimizing the Selection of Diagnostic Tools to Address Challenges with Epidemic Control in Key Populations from 16:45 am to 18:15 am in Cheick sidy Modibo Kane (MH 1). Jennifer Cohn, EGPAF-Geneva will present.

EGPAF POSTER PRESENTATIONS

Improving viral load monitoring among pediatric and adolescent clients in selected facilities, Hhohho and Shiselweni regions: Eswatini, presented by Gezani Mamba, EGPAF-Eswatini

Characterization of viral load testing according to national guidelines in selected health facilities in Malawi, presented by Joram Sunguti, EGPAF-Malawi

Determinants of viral suppression among children, adolescents and adults accessing HIV care in selected health facilities in Southern Malawi, presented by Thulani Maphosa, EGPAF-Malawi

Improving patient satisfaction in PMTCT services through the Community Score Card approach in Malawi, presented by Thulani Maphosa, EGPAF-Malawi

Engaging community health workers to improve linkage and retention in care among pregnant women in Tabora, Tanzania, presented by Ola Jahanpour, EGPAF-Tanzania

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 5

Merck will host On The Roadmap to Achieving the 2030 SDG Goals: Issues and Consequences in HIV Prevention and Treatment from 18:30 to 20:30 in the Kigali Auditorium. EGPAF's CEO and President Chip Lyons will present.

EGPAF POSTER PRESENTATIONS

Association of ART regimen with viral suppression in HIV-positive children in Eswatini: Baseline data from the FAM-CARE study, presented by Philisiwe Khumalo, EGPAF-Eswatini

Routine point-of-care HIV testing at birth: results from pilot in Eswatini, presented by Philisiwe Khumalo, EGPAF-Eswatini

Improving retention in care of pregnant and lactating women enrolled in lifelong ART in the Hhohho and Shiselweni regions: Eswatini, presented by Gezani Mamba, EGPAF-Eswatini

Improving cervical cancer screening through visual inspection with acetic acid (VIA) among HIV-positive women in a selected health facility in Eswatini, presented by Thembe Masuku, EGPAF-Eswatini

Sex-specific outcomes among clients offered voluntary assisted partner notification (VAPN) in EGPAF-supported districts within the southern region of Malawi, presented by Joram Sunguti, EGPAF-Malawi

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 6

Oral Abstract Presentation Prevalence of Advanced HIV Disease at Antiretroviral Therapy Initiation for Children and Adolescents Age 5-14 Years in Tanzania, 2015-2018 at the Antiretroviral Therapy Abstract Session from 12:45 to 14:15 in Session Room Prudence Mabele (MH 2+ Corridor). This work will be presented by Theopista Masenge, EGPAF-Tanzania.

EGPAF POSTER PRESENTATIONS

Non-communicable diseases and HIV: costs, effects, and efficiency of integrated screening and testing services for men in Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC), presented by Rantimi Adetunji, EGPAF-Global

Improving testing of contacts for HIV-infected clients through use of community lay cadres in Eswatini, presented by Gezani Mamba, EGPAF-Eswatini

"There are no secrets any more": experiences of caregivers and health care workers using the family-centered care model in Eswatini, presented by Philisiwe Khumalo, EGPAF-Eswatini

Assessing differences in early infant diagnosis testing uptake, positivity rates and treatment initiation rates between various health facility entry points, presented by Jennifer Cohn, EGPAF-Geneva

Challenges and opportunities in introducing point-of-care early infant diagnosis in 8 African countries: Outcomes from pre and post-intervention interviews with health care workers and laboratory managers, presented by Rebecca Bailey, EGPAF-Geneva